Daaaa

Chuck—
a good friend who hope will remember me d send me tickets for the Hope Desert classic so I can see n win $100,000 and share it with his friends!
seriously now, chuck, it's been fun knowing high school. Stay in touch and good luck all you do!
Yours friend, John Robson

Chuck,
have a great summer, hope to see you in the future, good luck at becoming a doctor

Chuck, I know we got off to a lot of shit for a lot of it's class w/ a wild a just reason. You a real cool dude
hope ogrio summer

Ron

chuck, I'm sure you're a good golfer, though clive never seen you and I'm sure you're a good swimmer, though Clive seen you. But I do a nice guy, so

Have fun this summer
Kind Regards
Ike

Rick Nicholls

CHUCK,
DON'T GET ME
WRONG ABOUT THE THINGS
I SAID AND DID IN CIVICS.
I WAS JUST KIDDING AROUND.
GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR DOING WHAT EVER TURNS YOU ON.
LATER ON,

TODD
BEGS

chuck,
Do a nice person.
Hope you have a great summer. Jovita

It's been great having you in geometry! You & Tim kept it from getting boring. Have a great summer (I know you will) Love,
Tommye
Jurak

CHUCK,
IT'S TOO BAD THAT YOU DIDN'T GO ON THIS SWIM TEAM THIS YEAR BUT MAYBE I'LL SEE
YOU THIS SUMMER
NIGO

Chuck,
Hiya! Thanks so much for bein a friend! You're a really great person, and it's been so good knowin' you, talkin' with you, and sharing times together. (I'll never forget you!) You really are somebody special, and I wish this year hadn't gone by so quickly! Time goes by so fast, doesn't it? Well, I hope that all of your times are happy times, and that your life is full of only good things. You're such a wonderful person, you really are, and I'm gonna' miss ya'! I hope that you'll keep in touch, I'd like to know how you're doin' n' all. Call me sometime, okay? (897-0740) We'll be livin' there till mid-summer, then moving to Huntington Beach. (When we get to H.B. you gotta' come over n' go swimmin' n' stuff) Have a great summer! (Be good!) And, remember to stay as sweet as you are now for forever... (is 'sweet' the word to use to explain how considerate you are and all? Hmm..) I think that you know what I'm trying to say, you're always seemed to understand me so well without me having to say too much. You're really fantastic! And, I hope you know that I really care! 'God Bless' — take care — Live, Love n' Laugh!

Love ya'!
Kim (Abraham)

(teddybear!)

Chuck,
It sure was great going through our school year together. Hope to see during the summer.
And good luck.
Ed Hoffman.

Chuck,
It was nice having
you in B.C.
Hope your destiny in life good luck.
Love always
Judy Denny

Chuck,
It was nice having
you on the ball team and I hope you do well
with what ever you do.
Have what a great summer.
Rocket Marshall

Chuck,
We had a good time in civics Mr. Aus had fun with that 3 x 5
That sat next to me
He called her so many AA names I'll just call her Mrs. B.
We had a great summer
like Schneider
Mike Schneider

Chuck,
It was great knowing you. My sister thinks you're a really neat guy. ~~A comedian~~ Of course she has a history of mental illness. Good luck in the future.

Men turn, and see the stars, and feel the free
Shrill wind beyond the close of heavy flowers;
And, through the music of the languid hours,
They hear like ocean on a western beach
The surge and thunder of the Odyssey.

Odyssey: an wandering or

We plunge into life lies before us. We spend a solution to the mystery discover who we really are;

It is an endless road

we travel, a road full of joy as well as sorrow, happiness as well as pain, confidence as well as fear.

extended journey . . .

with little knowledge of what our entire lifetimes seeking of life. We have yet to some of us will never know.

We must draw on our past

in our search for the future:

our loves, our hates, our prides,

our insecurities, our laughter, our tears.

But we are not alone.

Our road crosses

with countless others

before our travels come to an end.

We share our lives and our dreams with those we love,

with those whose roads

may turn away from ours,

leaving nothing but memories,

with some who will share our journey until the passing of time.

We are the class of 1980,

the beacons of the future, the fiery signals that announce the beginning of a new decade.

We go with pride and hope, though

we do not know the way.

The Road goes ever on and on

Down from the door where it began.

Now far ahead the Road has gone,

And I must follow, if I can,

Pursuing it with eager feet,

Until it joins some larger way

Where many paths and errands meet.

And whither then? I cannot say.

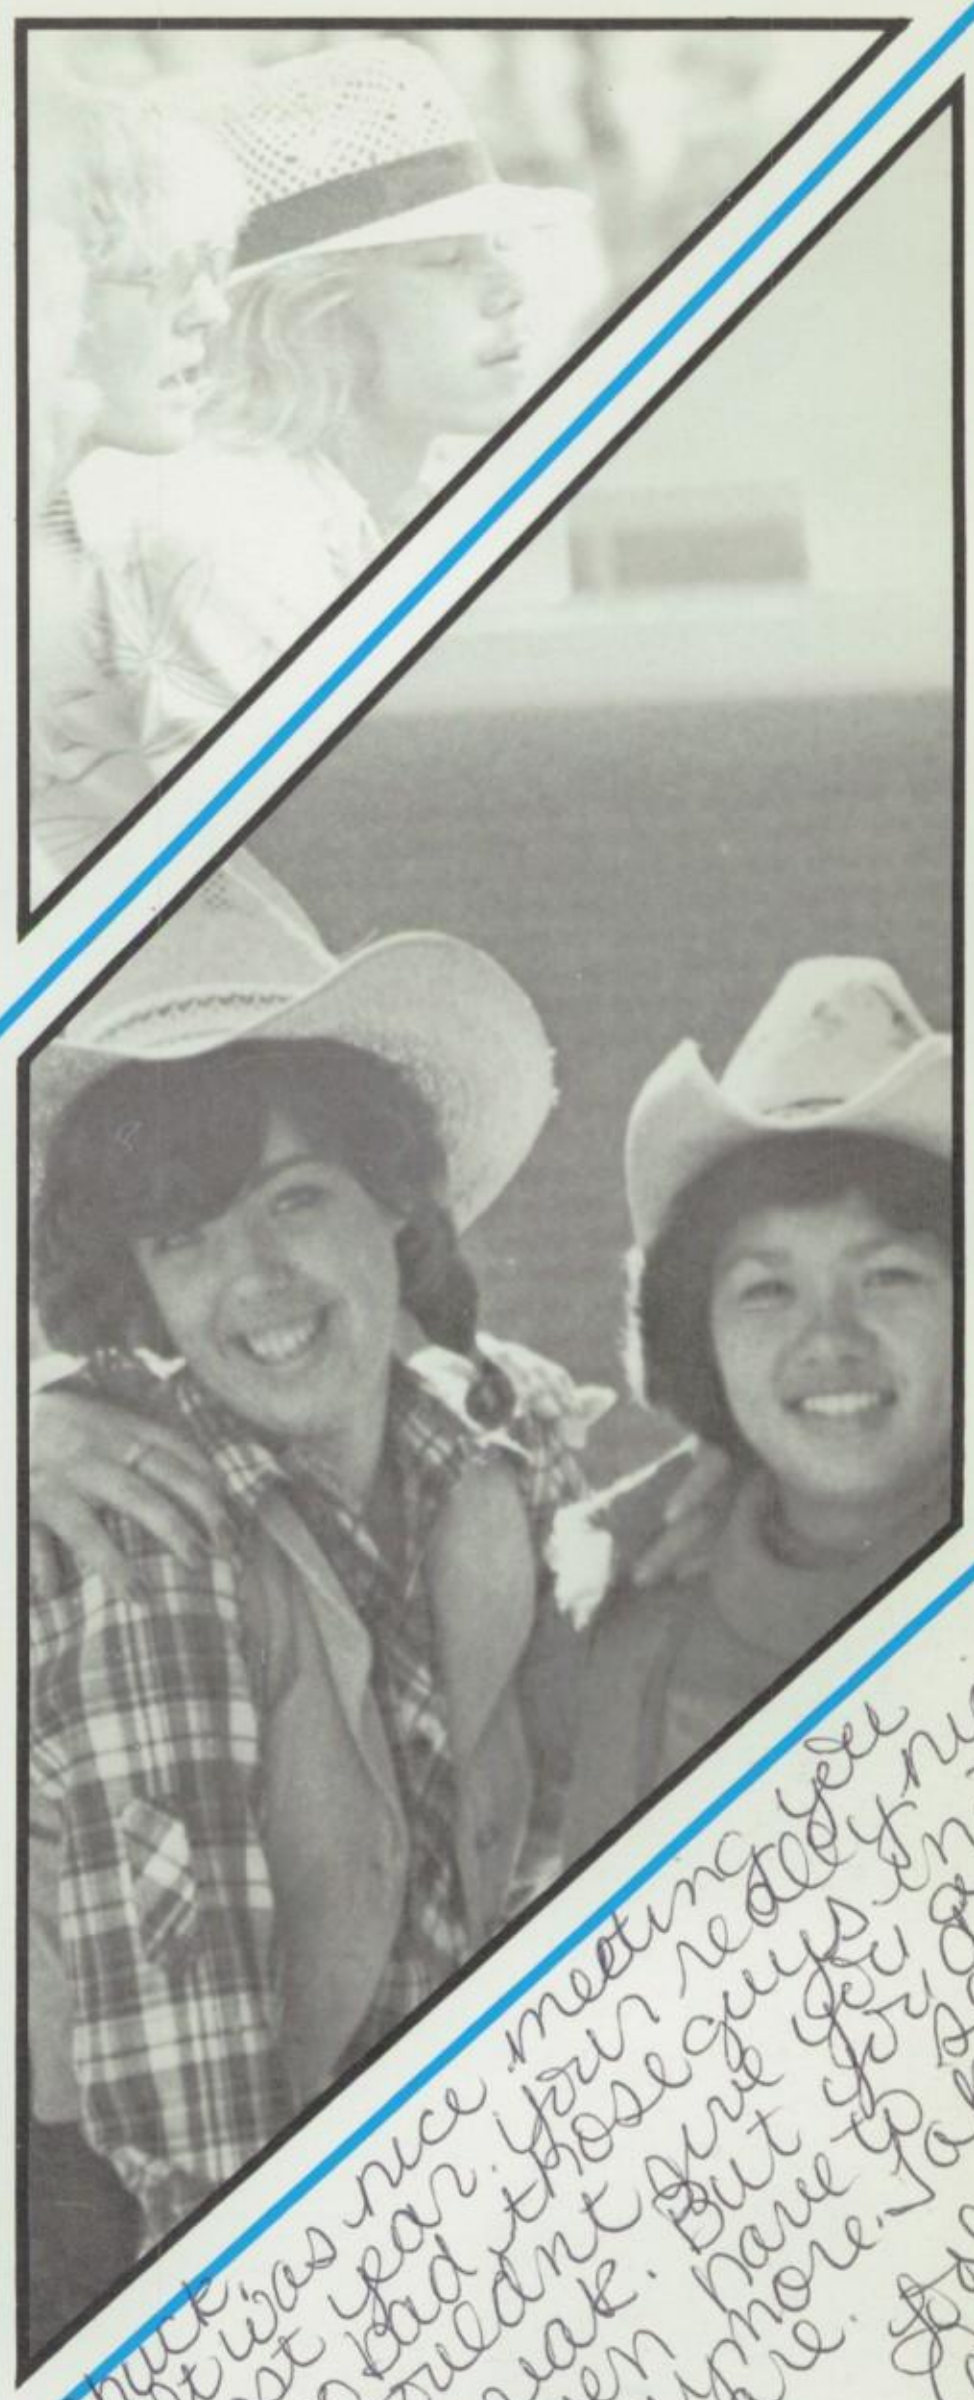
Chuck - To my saving resource in Alg. II. I wouldn't have made it ~~wo~~ without all of your helping points! Take care of yourself, and try to take it easy over the summer. Best of luck next year in college!

Love,
Gail Louie



Chuck
It was nice meeting you last year. Your really nice too bad those guys in 3rd wouldn't give you a break. But you don't even have to see them anymore. Take care. Love ya

"When you wish upon a star,
Dreams will take you very far.
But when you wish upon a dream
Life ain't always what it seems.
So, if you find yourself in need,
Listen to these words of heed.

1. CINDY SCHMITT- This year, Cindy was the only staff person to have something faintly resembling a good head on her shoulders. Unfortunately, the resemblance ends there. Cindy's mind first began to deteriorate after she got into drugs, and her mental condition has gone downhill ever since.
2. TERESA ZANABONI- Teresa is a fine example of what can happen to a naive person in a demented society. She spends her spare time at a commune where she meditates on such vital issues as whether or not the existence of tree lice is meaningful in today's society.
3. JULIE CURRY- Last seen waving out the window of a DC-10 as she flew off to Brazil with imbezzled yearbook funds. Her bad luck streak, which began on the first day of school when the entire staff showed up for class, continued when she took Gail's advice and invested her millions in the Chrysler Corporation. Julie is not Howdy's understudy because she doesn't have enough brains for the part.

The Reef Held Hostage

Which Of These People(?) Is Howdy Doody's Understudy?

4. RENE SERVIS- Rene recently got into Zen-Buddhism, which accounts for the blank pages she tired to turn in this year. Upon graduation, Rene plans to revert back to "little girl" status and go through thirteen more years of school to pick up anything she may have missed out of life.
5. JANA COOPER- Jana's major contribution to the yearbook was the extensive section which was to appear at the back of this book. Unfortunately, Jana's decision to have basic black autograph pages caused the entire section to be scrapped.
6. STEVE ACTERMAN- The most obvious choice for Howdy's understudy due to his passion for cutting the fuzz off of red pipe cleaners. Steve has the distinction of being the only staff member to install a two thousand-dollar "Buffalo Bob" security system on his box.
7. SCOTT KRIEGER- Scott is one of twelve people at Pacifica who are at least willing to pretend to be patriotic. However, Scott blew his cover when he became eligible for the draft. He fled to Israel under the guise of visiting Washington, D.C., and he hasn't been heard from since.
8. ED MERKLE- Eddie became a perfectly typical yearbook photographer when electro-shock therapy wiped away most of his personality. Ed holds the record for lost rolls of film, forty-three and still counting.
9. GAIL LOUIE- Gail makes an excellent understudy for Howdy Doody despite the fact that she is an amputee. Gail makes up for her handicap by smiling constantly, even when she is told not to smile since everyone in the picture is supposed to look serious.
10. MIKE CAMPION- Mike once used his Howdy Doody image to infiltrate the CIA and gain access to top secret information regarding the "Committee to Re-re-elect Nixon," of which Mike is a member. Mike can sometimes be found practicing with his band, "Doodyvillebound."
11. SHARLYN QUALLS- Sharlyn is a member of the "Committee to Re-clone Jimmy Carter. She practices Shivanism in her spare time as she strives to achieve cosmic unity or, in her own words, "to just float through life like a German dirigible."
12. SMITA VAKIL- One of the few semi-literates on the staff this year (the rest are all illiterate). Smita's utter devotion to the staff was best expressed as she was overheard saying, "I don' care, I'm getting out of here because you all make me sick."
13. DANA KRIESEL- Dana received the "Most Innocent" award as she achieved new heights in purity this year. Her wholesomeness makes her the perfect president of the local chapter of the Sid Vicious Fan Club.
14. MR. MICHAEL SULLIVAN- For Mr. Sullivan, making the transition from a Cuban revolutionary to a high school English teacher was no problem. After recently becoming a professional mercenary (he majored in Sadism in college), Mr. Sullivan plans to further his career by running for Ayatollah next year. He refused to be Howdy Doody's understudy, saying modestly, "I'm just too good for the part."
15. DANETTE NORTHCUTT- Danette is pictured here in her entirety although it looks as if she is not pictured at all. After not having seen Danette in class for days and months and years, we decided that Danette must be a figment of our imagination or else she is just one of those people who blend into the background.

NOT PICTURED

DAVID CABALLERO- Dave missed much of the year as he desperately struggled to uphold the photographers' tradition of non-productiveness. Although he had to miss six months of school in the attempt, he still failed to surpass the rest of the photographers in their great race to take as few pictures as possible.
LAUREN DEMARCO- Lauren is not pictured because she had a bad experience with her curling iron on the day pictures were taken. She is still trying to recover from the shock.
SUE GRANT- Sue's inability to speak English was a definite handicap since she was in charge of copywriting for the Spirit and Senior sections of this yearbook. Nevertheless, Sue has been a definite asset to this book, although she is still under suspicion of being a commie spy.

Democracy At Pacifica

David Steele

Frankly, one wonders how it could get any worse than it is now. According to Mr. Berro, only about 8-10 nominations are turned in each month, and since only three students and an advisor are voting, an extremely small percentage of the student body is represented.

As stated before, two of the three members of the League have already won. It would appear that these choices could be biased.

When Mr. Berro was asked if he thought that the League was biased in their choices, he replied "I am not biased. I try to see that each choice is arrived at fairly."

Rebuttal by Earl Berro

It saddens me to write this to El Corriente because I have always had the highest regard for this newspaper's intent and purpose.

According to El Corriente we were biased when two girls of the Student League became Mariner of the Month. I say no.

Life's Walkway: An In-Depth Report
Ditch Stirs Anxiety

In life we are faced with many hardships. Let's face it, life isn't easy, but we try to make it as comfortable as possible.

Let's make life a little easier, and lower the crime rate at the same time. Let's get a walkway next to the ditch.

Mark Shell: Man Or Myth?

by Scott French

On the first ballot for ASB president at the nominating convention on January 12th, Mark Shell received 12 votes, four under the minimum to quality for the second ballot.

The vote counter put up four extra votes, however, so that Mark could make the ballot, in which 38 delegates voted for him. There was one problem, however: Mark Shell does not exist!

With the help of a few El Corriente staff members, I ran Mark Shell for ASB president. Not as a joke, but to prove a point.

Billed as the former ASB vice-president of Magnolia High School, Mark was absent the week of the convention with the Russian Flu; this exterminated any chances of the students meeting him.

This experiment proved even further the already known fact that PHS has an apathetic campus. A chance to learn of our nation's political structure was wasted by students who obviously don't give a damn.

Honest Students

by Rich Nicholls

A few weeks ago, money from the Student Store cash box was stolen. It was an undisclosed amount, and the guilty party was never found. This and other thefts occurring over the years brings up the question of whether security is tight enough on our campus.

Ready for a shock? "There will be no more live rock bands at Pacifica Dances, while I'm here," says Acitivities Director Bill Sinnigen.

PHS: A Financial Success

by Tom Allen

Eight weeks after the opening of the 1979-1980 school year, a notice was distributed that advised of the school's financial position. At that time, the school was approximately $14,000 behind its projected income. According to Activities Director Bill Langan, the situation has improved little in six weeks since the notice was circulated.

Salutatorian

Jenfei Lee

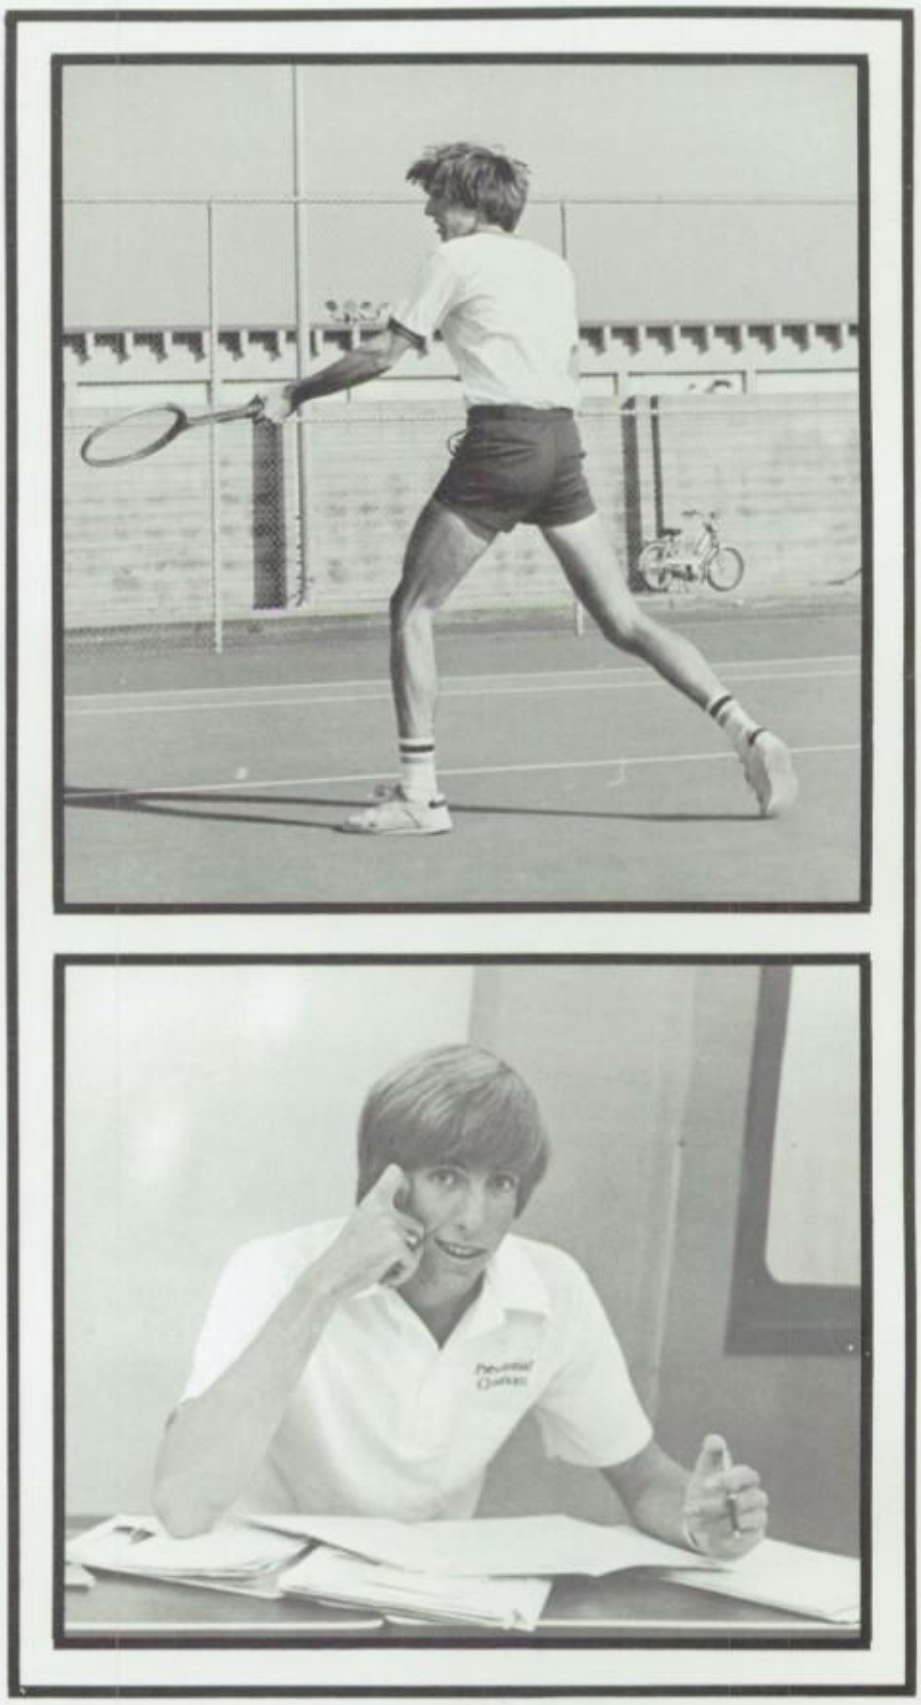
Three outstanding students, Carol Nakahara, Julie Curry, and Arielle Read, have been chosen as this year's Valedictorians. Each student has maintained an excellent 4.0 grade average and will graduate a sealbearer. They have shown excellent performance in high school and will undoubtedly continue this pattern of excellence in college.

Jenfei Lee is ranked second in the graduating class of '80. She has earned her place as Salutatorian by maintaining a 3.976 grade average. Jenfei plans to attend college in the fall.

We wish these students continued success as they enter a challenging new world.

Pete Younger Memorial Award

Scholar • Leadership • Athlete



Tom Allen can be considered a living definition of ambition. He has been a leader at Pacifica in nearly all facets of high school life. His greatly visible drive and success made him the obvious choice for recipient of the 1980 Pete Younger Memorial Award and Scholarship.

Tom began his role as a leader in his sophomore year when he quickly became a staff writer for El Corriente. This was also his first year as a member of Pacifica's Varsity Tennis Team and the California Scholastic Federation (CSF).

By his junior year, Tom had established himself as a well-known campus figure. He was elevated to the level of sports editor - and eventually assistant editor - of El Corriente. At the same time, Tom helped to lead the tennis team into its first-ever CIF competition. Towards the end of the year, Pacifica's CSF members elected Tom as their 1979-1980 president.

But it was in his senior year that Tom reached his highest level of high school accomplishment. He became editor-in-chief of El Corriente, and helped to develop what has been called the best newspaper staff in Pacifica's history; it was certainly one of the finest in the Garden Grove School District. Early in the school year, Tom was nominated to the position of senior class secretary. Soon after followed his election as "Mariner of the Month."

In early March, Tom represented Pacifica in "A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans." Just prior to this event, he was recognized by his peers when he was elected "Most Likely to Succeed" by the Senior Class.

Despite his many social activities, and the demands of being an honor student, Tom has still managed to maintain a 3.7 GPA. He will graduate as a seal bearer.

Tom's accomplishments have not been limited to the high school level. He is co-chairperson of the Garden Grove Youth Commission as well as being involved in other civic activities.

Tom is also a well-seasoned backpacker.

Next fall, Tom will attend the University of California, Riverside where he plans to major in administrative studies. He has already recieved a scholarship from the Elks club to aid in his education.

With an unbeatable desire to achieve such as Tom's, he should need no luck in the future. But out of custom, let us say 'good luck' to Tom; he has our congratulations.

Mariner Of The Year

Injuries can often shorten an athlete's career or hamper his performance to an extent that he cannot compete to the level he had earlier attained.

Renee Reynolds has been able to overcome such adversity, and if it has affected her performance, no one is the wiser.

Instead, Renee has distinguished herself as one of the top women athletes around, and thus has been named this year's "Mariner of the Year."

Renee's running ability has ranked her among the top ten in both cross country and track. "She's a very talented athlete," offered coach George Varvas. "She has definitely held her own not only in league, but outside of league."

Despite a fall in the GGL's cross country finals, Renee placed third, behind two of the state's top runners. Her time of 12:35 for two miles was even more impressive in that it was run in the rain. The girls' team went undefeated through her efforts. "Renee meant all the difference in the world to our team," Varvas said. "She won the crucial races."

In track, Renee has set two school distance records. Her mile-time of 5:39 and two mile of 12:39 were exceptional, especially considering that the times were achieved in March, well before she would hit her peak.

Varvas describes her as the ideal worker. "Renee is the type of athlete who says at the end of a workout, 'Is that all?' She gives 100% and is always striving to improve."

Mariner Of The Year

At Pacifica, athletes with substantial talent in one sport are very common. But finding an athlete that excels in more than one sport is more difficult to come by. Joe Canatey fills this later category quite admirably. In fact he ranks as one of the top multi-sport athletes in Mariner history. Therefore, he is the recipient of 1980's "Mariner of the Year" award.

Joe was chosen MVP of the league champsionship football team and was selected a first team all-league defensive back, leading the Mariners with three interceptions.

A two-way starter, Joe grabbed 12 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown as a split end. At times it seemed as if he never left the field. He shared the kickoff and placekicking duties with Dan Garrison for two years.

"Joe seemed never to make a mistake; he played very well under pressure," noted coach Bill Craven. "He ran good routes and had good hands."

As the starting leftfielder for Pacifica's baseball team, Joe is described by coach Myron Pines as a "funny player."

"He's the type of player who'll make a terrible baserunning mistake and then come back to get a key hit to win the game."

Joe batted third in the Mariner's lineup, the spot usually given to the team's best hitter. "He's our power," Pines said, refering to the fact that after 11 games, Joe had two of Pacifica's five extra-base hits.

"Joe can be as good a baseball player as he wants to be," said Pines. "If he works at it he should be a good college player somewhere."

Most Worthy Mariner

Scott Krieger

Scott Krieger has been awarded the title of "Most Worthy Mariner" for his overall participation in school activities.

Scott is a member of the senior class cabinet. He was also elected to the Presidential Classroom and spent a week in Washington D.C.

In the classroom Scott has maintained a 3.6 grade average with such courses as Chemistry, English and Fundamental Math Analysis. He will graduate as a sealbearer.

Scott was also a member of the yearbook staff in his junior and senior years. He was staff photographer. He covered all the major sport events and major school activities. In his senior year, in addition to being photographer, Scott was responsible for doing the boy's sport section. Scott is working part-time while in school to earn money for his summer trip to Europe. When he comes back, he plans to attend Cal Poly Pomona, where he will pursue a career in business. His involvement in civic activities, however, may indicate a future career in politics. Already he has shown his political capability by running his father's political campaign.

Congratulations Scott and good luck!

Leadership, Scholarship, Total Contribution To School Programs

Most Worthy Mariner

Lauren DeMarco has earned the title of "Most Worthy Mariner" for her fine participation in school activities.

In her Junior year, Lauren was secretary of the Junior Class Cabinet. She often did more than her share of the work. Her enthusiasm and involvement in school activities earned her the title "Mariner of the Month" in the 1978-1979 school year.

As junior class officer she organised most of the junior's activities. She organized both the 1979 and 1980 Co-eds and did an exceedingly good job in organizing the Junior-Senior Prom.

Lauren was also a member of the Student League for two years. She was a member of the Interact Club in 11th grade and was involved in both yearbook and journalism. She has been able to maintain a 3.4 grade average while being in the honor's program.

Congratulations Lauren! Good luck in the future!

Victories—13 of them in a row at the end of the season—piled up again for Pacifica's soccer team in '80, as the Mariners habit of winning improved their reputation as the most successful sport on campus.

Pacifica advanced to the CIF finals for the second time in three years, but this time the Mariners remembered to bring home the prize.

The team swept through the second half of league undefeated to take its fourth straight title, then set its sights on the higher goal.

Led by CIF Player of the Year Russ Burdeno, the Mariners attacked Chadwick, University, La Quinta and Keppel to reach the championship against Avaiation.

The Mariners' dream looked trod upon after 40 minutes as the taller Falcons used height to take a 2-0 advantage.

But Burdeno and Dave Streud, a first-team all-CIFer, took charge of the field in the second half using a ground game to give Pacifica a 3-2 victory. Charlie Abernathy opened the Mariners' scoring three minutes into the half and Burdeno's penalty kick tied it up 15 minutes later.

Pacifica had many scoring opportunities in the final 20 minutes, but it wasn't until the 76th minute of the contest that Burdeno delivered a blue trophy to Pacifica, one-timing Tom Cook's pass past the Aviation goalkeeper.

Goalie Robby Weil, who recorded 14 shutouts (two in the playoffs), and Mike Stocke (four playoff goals) joined Burdeno and Sterud on the All-CIF team.

This year's Donkey Basketball game was very challenging. Both sides were determined to win. Each side would score a basket while still remaining on a donkey. The players proving their determination, tied the game with a score of 18-18 at the half time. After a short break, the players had a fresh start for the continuation of the game. When the official time of the game was over, the score was tied again 38-38. So, the game went into overtime leaving whoever scored the next basket as the winners. It was "Do-It-All" Walker who scored this next basket leaving the teachers victorious.

One of the high points of the evening was the crowning of Mike Samuel as Co-Ed King by his date, Connie Cardwell. Runners-up for Co-Ed King were Bill McKinney and Joe Canatsey.

The Co-Ed's unique idea of "girl ask guy" will continue to keep the Co-Ed a popular event with the students at Pacifica.

The week preceding Pacifica's Homecoming was filled with much fun, excitement, and spirit. The week's festivities included class competition, lawn decorations, and dress-up days. The junior class, however, won the overall class competition by posting a one point victory over the seniors.

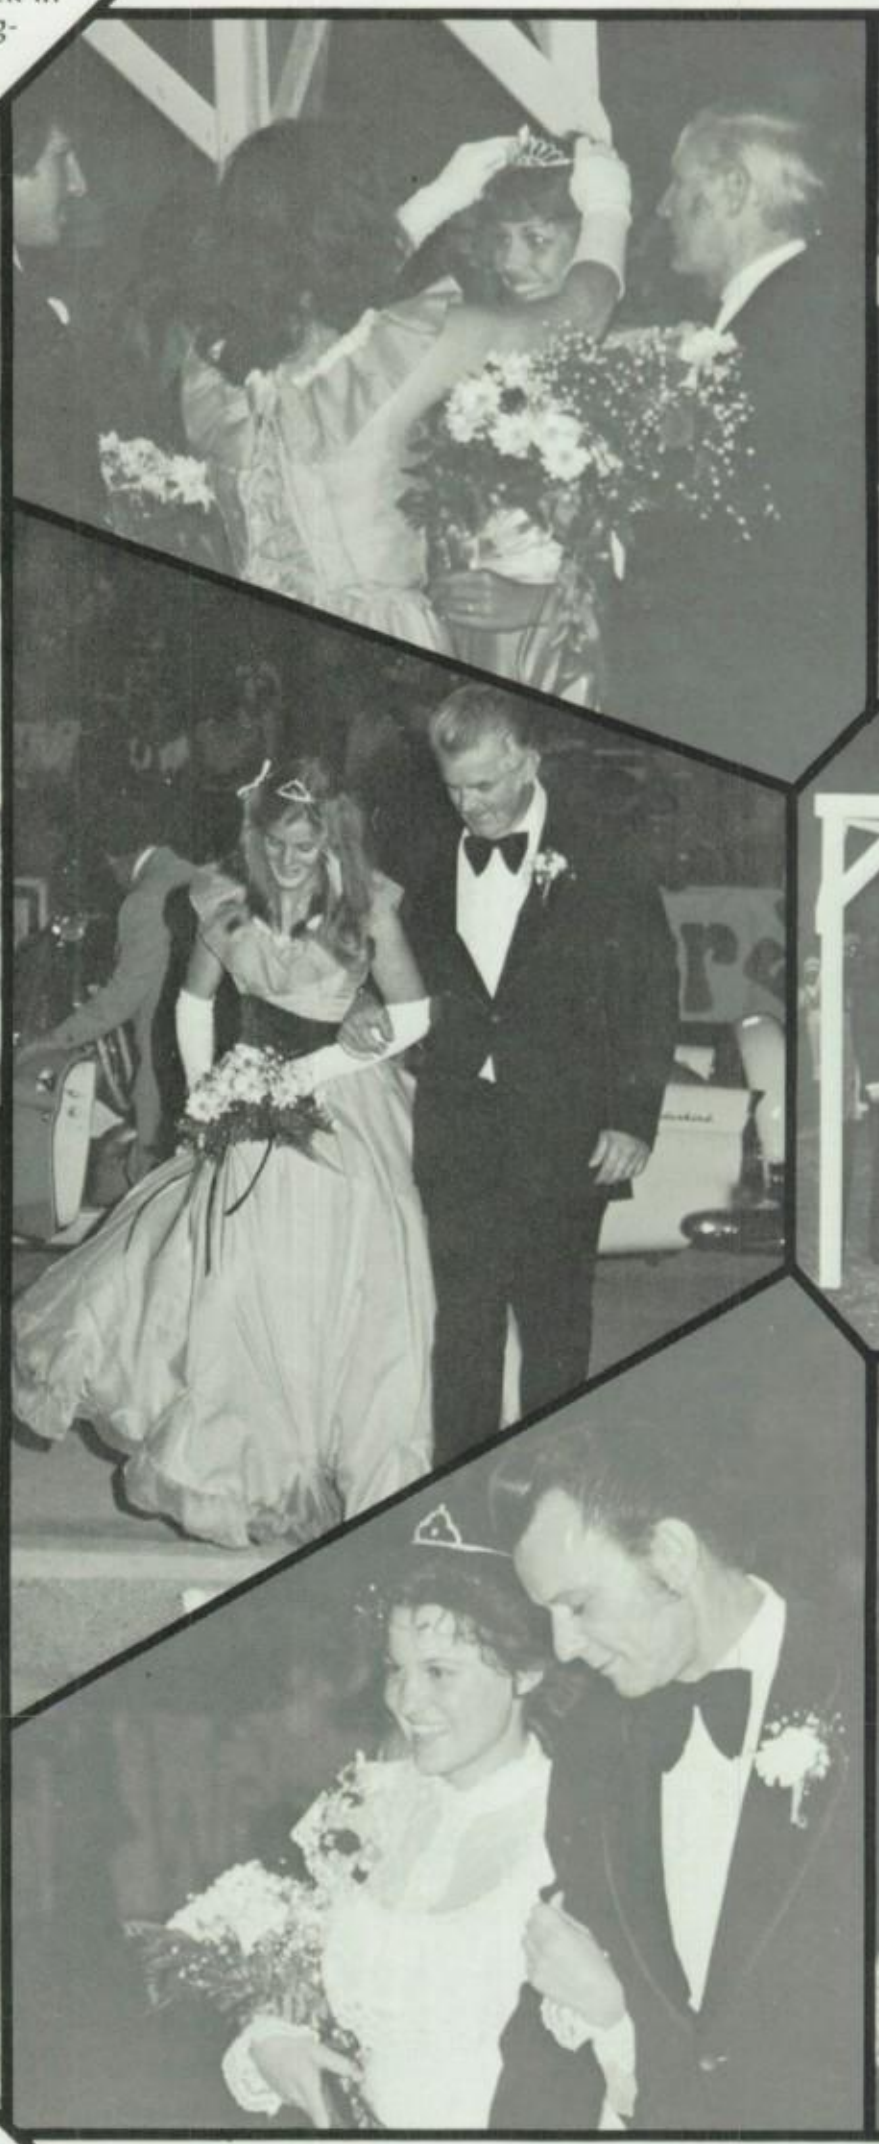
An Old-Fashi

On October 26, Pacifica held its 1979 Homecoming at Bolsa Grande Stadium. The Mighty Mariner Machine battled the Bolsa Matadors and posted a 7-6 victory.

This year's homecoming was an old fashion delight. The five princesses circled Bolsa's track in dated classic cars to begin the halftime pageant. And although the night belonged to Sophomore Princess Jennifer McIntyre and Junior Princess Cheri Mason as much as it belonged to the senior princesses, their fates had already been uncovered.

While emcees Dawn Jett and John Flynn played with the crowd's emotions, the three senior princesses trembled in anxious wonder of what was in store.



A Time to

d Homecoming

But when the awaited moment finally came and Dawn and John echoed out Michelle Tolliver's name, there was much rejoicing. Last year's honored queen, Cindy Mason Helm, presented Michelle with the crown and bouquet of flowers, and Pacifica's 1979-80 Homecoming Queen began her reign over her court.

It seems as if Pacifica's football team never plays well during the first half of the homecoming game, saving the best performances for after the ceremony. Perhaps in past years, and this year, the team had decided to allow the first climax of the evening to occur during the announcement of the queen. And that's the way it worked out in '79.

Mariners Take Eighth Straight League Title

By Scott French

PACIFICA 34 WESTERN 6

The Mariners opened up the 1979 season with hopes of bettering their 1978 accomplishments and winning the CIF Southern Conference title. A 34-6 triumph over Western headed the squad in the right direction.

Quarterback Tim Rotell led Pacifica's awe-inspiring offense, directing four scoring drives with his eight-for-10, 83-yard passing. Rotell connected on one scoring toss, a nine-yard completion to Billy McKinney.

A balanced rushing game accounted for 214 yards, Rich Stahlheber and Mike Eaton leading the nine man attack with 115 yards and three touchdowns combined. Stahlheber scored from five and seven yards out, and Eaton carried the ball in from the five; the 5-9 flanker also returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown.

The tough Pacifica defense gave up just 41 yards rushing to the Pioneers.

ANAHEIM 10 PACIFICA 7

Since the eighth game of the 1975 season, Pacifica's football team had not known regular season defeat. Through 29 straight contests the Mariners had compiled a 27-0-2 record, the ties to Rancho Alamitos and Santiago in 1977 and '78, respectively.

On September 28th that streak

PACIFICA 28 LA QUINTA 7

What was supposed to be a tight struggle between two of the top teams in the Garden Grove League turned into a one-sided affair as Pacifica took control of the game from the start, blasting La Quinta 28-7.

PACIFICA 10 GARDEN GROVE 6

Lady Luck must've been sitting on the visitors side October 20th, as Joe Canatsey blocked a Garden Grove punt with 1:31 left in the game, and Kent McBride fell on the loose ball in the end zone to lead Pacifica to a 10-6 come-from-behind victory over the Argonauts.

Garden Grove had completely controlled the game, holding the Mariners to 98 total yards, but penalties knocked the Argos back to their own 16. Facing a fourth-and-40 situation, Garden Grove sent in Fran Duran to punt. Coach Bill Craven sent in a ten

PACIFICA 14 SANTIAGO 0

Ever since Santiago became a football power three years ago, its game with Pacifica has always been a classic.

In 1977 the Cavaliers were 7-0 when they met the 6-0-1 Mariners. Pacifica pulled out a very hard fought 13-6 victory.

In '78 both teams entered the match with identical 8-0 records. The clash, billed by many as the game of the year in Orange County, ended in a 14-14 draw, giving each school a share of the Garden Grove League title.

Unlike the previous two years, 1979's Pacifica-Santiago match had two participants competing with less-than-perfect records. The combined mark of the teams was 1-3 going into the game, and neither squad had really looked overly impressive.

But the teams' prior play had little to do with the excitement generated on the field.

The first half mirrored the '77 and '78 contests, as the schools battled to a 0-0 tie in a very even 24 minutes of play.

But in the second half, Pacifica completely dominated the Cavaliers, who were battling injury and inexperience. Tim Flores scored the first of two-touchdowns in the 14-0 victory late in the third quarter from four yards out. Mike McClanahan added another score in the final period.

While the Mariner offense coasted in the second half, racking up 216 yards, Santiago found itself unable to move the ball. Pa-

PACIFICA 35 LOS AMIGOS 0

For the eighth season in a row Pacifica won the Garden Grove League championship in football, clinching at least a tie for the title by routing Los Amigos 35-0 November 9th.

The way Pacifica won the game was as much a surprise as the fact that the Mariners had won the crown again. As tradition stresses that Pacifica will be champions, tradition assures that the Mariners' running game as rich as Pacifica's, downed the Mariners 10-7 on a 37-yard field goal by Danish foreign exchange student Jan Barkler.

Anaheim, with one of its best teams in recent years, stayed with Pacifica the entire game, taking the lead with just under two minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The Colonists, behind running-back Dave Brown, ran easily on the Mariners, gaining 163 yards rushing. Pacifica outclassed Anaheim's stats with 298 total yards, however. Rich Stahlheber led Pacifica's rushing attack with 134 yards and one touchdown, from 11 yards out.

feat the Aztecs. For a change of pace, Pacifica's top two rushers were its flankers, Mike Eaton and Billy McKinney. Eaton gained 76 yards to lead the charge, and McKinney added 67 on three carries, one being a 52-yard ramble which set up his eight yard, third quarter score.

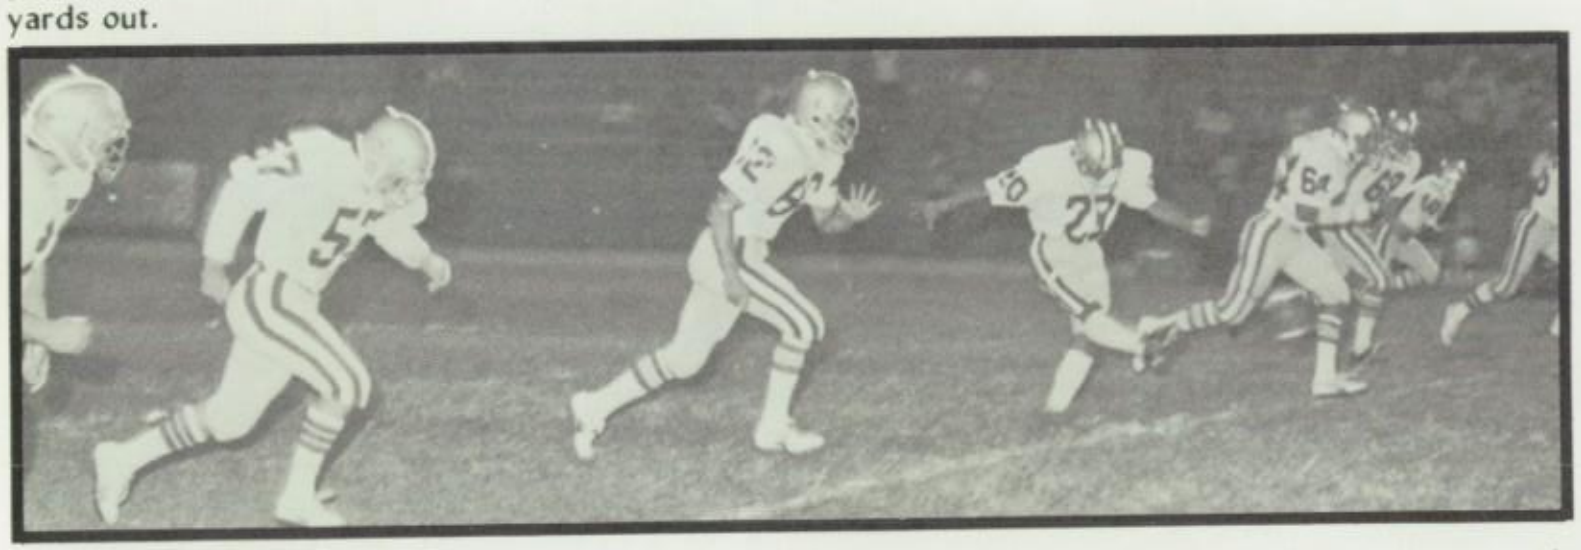
Eaton and Mike McClanahan each scored on runs, and Todd Biggs caught a 31-yard Tim Flores pass for another touchdown.

Pacifica generated 321 yards total offense in running its record to 3-1. The Aztecs gained 157 yards, 100 coming through the air via Jon Dimalante passes.

Dan Garrison's 23-yard field goal late in the second quarter provided Pacifica's only other score in the game.

Argo tailback Bill Welch aggravated the Mariner defense all night, and he was credited with 106 yards, four on a touchdown blast early in the second quarter. Fortunately for Pacifica, many long Welch runs were called back due to penalties, including two 15-plus yard gains just before the blocked punt.

Rich Stahlheber led the Mariners with 58 rushing yards gained on the muddy turf.



PACIFICA 32 BURROUGHS (RIDGECREST) 6

Due to the fact that only seven schools compete in the Garden Grove League, it is imperative that each team have a bye somewhere in their league schedule. Some GGL schools play a non-league game on their bye weeks, others just take a week off to prepare for the next GGL contest.

Pacifica has always used this week to show outside schools why it has dominated the Garden Grove League for the last decade.

In recent years Valhalla of San Diego and Workman of the City of Industry have discovered Pacifica's talent, with less than appreciated results. The teams lost 47-0 and 30-0, respectively.

In early November, Burroughs High School, of Ridgecrest, found out what Valhalla and Workman already knew. Pacifica scored 22 second quarter points to coast to a 32-6 victory over Burroughs.

Tim Rotell lit up the skies with an aerial show worthy of much praise. The senior quarterback connected on seven of nine passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns. His favorite targets were tight end Todd Biggs and split end Joe Canatsey; each caught three passes, combining for over 140 of Pacifica's passing yards.

Biggs hauled down two scoring tosses, including a 54-yarder that ignited a six-minute stretch where the Mariners scored 22 points.

Mike Eaton swept right for a 10-yard score, and Rotell rammed up the middle one yard for the other two second quarter touchdowns. Joe Canatsey, replacing the injured Dan Garrison, hit three extra points and a 32-yard field goal. One of his PATs followed Biggs' second score, an 11-yard pass from Rotell. Rotell hit Billy McKinney for a two-point conversion after Biggs' first TD.

Burroughs ruined Pacifica's shutout bid late in the fourth quarter when Mike Waters threw a 36-yard scoring strike to Mark Urseth on a flea flicker.

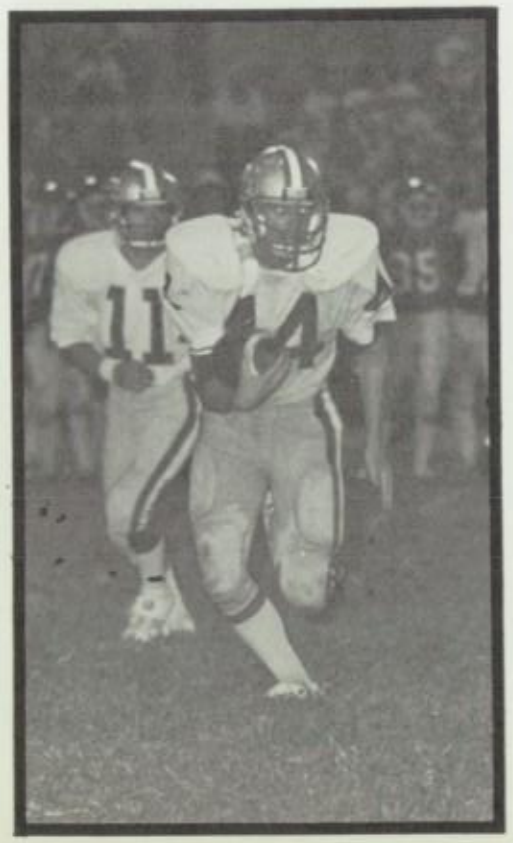
The Mariner defense did an outstanding job of containing Burroughs' attack, limiting the desert school to 42 rushing yards. A strong pass rush, led by Mark Weisbender and John Schimka, set up two interceptions and sacked Burroughs' quarterbacks eight times.

Someone forgot to tell the Mariners that last minute come from behind victories, are not the most enjoyable experiences. For the second week in a row, Pacifica waited until the fourth quarter to take the lead, the Mariners ending Bolsa Grande's upset bid 7-6.

Before a homecoming crowd, the Mariners found themselves down 6-0 at halftime, due to two Jon Poole field goals. But Pacifica came back midway through the fourth quarter, Billy McKinney bursting one-yard up the middle to cap a 10-play, 67-yard drive. Dan Garrison's all-important extra point made it 7-6.

The Matadors, playing their best game of the year, featured a strong offense, led by quarterback Ron Hendricks and running-back Curtis Gervais. Hendricks completed nine of 18 passes for 112 yards, and Gervais gained 154 yards on the ground.

But Pacifica also had a top ground gainer, as junior Rich Stahlheber carried 24 times for 138 yards.



Los Amigos. Pacifica rushed for 275 yards, including 100-yard games by Rich Stahlheber and Jeff Ross. Stahlheber gained 111 yards on 17 carries, and Ross, a sophomore, put on a spectacular second half performance and was credited with 113 yards on 10 rushes in the final two quarters.

Pacifica set the tempo for the game midway through the first quarter when Tim Rotell hit Billy McKinney with a 48-yard scoring pass. McKinney, running through the center of the field, caught the ball on the 40 and, with the help of an awesome Todd Biggs block, ran untouched down the left sideline.

The Mariners had complete control of the game from this time forward, outgaining the Lobos 372-103.

Mc Kinney scored his second TD late in the first quarter, going one yard up the middle. In the second quarter, John Schimka forced a fumble deep in Los Amigos territory. The ball rolled towards the end zone with defensive end Mark Weisbender and Lobo guard Carl Manfrates in pursuit. Manfrates came up with the ball, but Weisbender fell on him in the end zone for the safety.

The Mariners tightened their grip on the game in the second half, scoring 20 fourth quarter points. Mike Eaton and Tim Flores both had one-yard touchdown runs, and Stahlheber scampered 17 yards into the end zone in the final period.

The Mariners finished their regular season with a 49-8 thrashing of Rancho Alamitos. A week later Downey shutout Pacifica 17-0 in the CIF playoffs.

Soccer Sets Goal

When George Terlaak took over Pacifica's soccer program in its initial season four years ago, nobody expected him to be successful immediately. After all, it often takes years to build a program from scratch.

But after spending the first season building up the program, Terlaak found great success. He's coached Pacifica to three straight Garden Grove titles and turned the squads into soccer powerhouses.

Two years ago, Terlaak led the Mariners to the CIF finals. Last season, Pacifica was ranked first in CIF 3-A much of the year. The Mariners were upset by Kennedy in the quarterfinals.

Terlaak was born in Bandung, Indonesia and grew up in New Guinea, where he learned the game. As a player he has enjoyed much success. A goalie, Terlaak led Glendale College to a 31-0-1 record in two years, recording several shutouts. His career included stints at Long Beach State and in the Air

For CIF Crown

Force. He has also played semi-professionally in the greater Los Angeles area for Paramount United.

But Terlaak's greatest playing success came in the sport of volleyball. Playing in the Air Force, Terlaak earned All-Services distinctions and played in two major world wide tournaments.

But he has surpassed all of his former achievements coaching soccer. Before taking over the program at Pacifica, Terlaak had had many successes coaching AYSO teams.

His coaching philosophy has always centered around discipline and conditioning. "Our kids have to be in superior physical condition," Terlaak pointed out. Pacifica's teams have always had great competiveness, desire, team spirit, and overall athletic ability. The Mariners have also always had great coaching.

In four years prior to this season, Pacifica had compiled a 57-18-8 record under the tutelage of Terlaak. The JV team has won league titles all four years and have not allowed a goal in over two seasons.

The exceptional play exhibited by past squads was expected to continue in 1980 under the expert coaching of Terlaak and his assistant, Mike Agnello. With such top returners as Russ Burdeno, Dan Garrison, Charlie Abernathy, Dave Sterud, Mike Stocke, Gregg Engels, Rick Marshall, and Robert Scarritt, along with a group of highly talented newcomers, Pacifica was a preseason favorite in the 2-A division, which the Garden Grove League was dropped to last May.

As far as talent goes, the 1979-80 squad was the best Pacifica has ever had. But its major strength was coaching. For five years George Terlaak has taken the best soccer players in the area and molded excellent teams out of them. And hopefully he will do the same for at least five more years.

Pacifica's Cross Country team began the '79 season with hopes of bringing home the league crown, or at least bettering the third place league standing that they have held for the past two years. During the pre-season, it appeared that the relatively inexperienced team was going to have a difficult time accomplishing either of these goals. Only Tom Cook and Greg Vizzini had any extensive varsity experience; Stu Farber and Brian Stemm had some, but Jim Madden, Charles Reed, and Eugene Rougeau had none. But when the league season began, the team got tough. Led by All League runner Greg Vizzini, the team powered past Garden Grove, La Quinta, Bolsa, and Rancho before they were finally beaten by an excellent Los Amigos squad.

At the Garden Grove League Finals, the Mariners struggled in the rain to earn third place, leaving them with an overall second place standing in league. This position not only qualified the team for CIF competition, but it also set future teams back on the road toward a first ever league championship.

Four people who will try to make the dream of a league crown a reality next year will be Clair Haney, Tom Sisneros, Bob Thompson, and Ken Vizzini-this year's top J.V. runners. Individual league champion Clair Haney led the Junior Varsity team to a third place standing in league.

The 1979 Mariner water polo team finished in the thick of league competition with a fourth place finish. Although a rather mediocre finish, it is commendable in view of the obstacles the team had to overcome just to get going.

The team was without a coach for more than two weeks at the beginning of the season. PHS alumnus Ron Carroll volunteered to take the position, although he had had no former coaching experience. He had, however, been an All-American water polo player at Cypress College.

Two weeks into the season and with a rookie coach, the Mariner poloists' '79 season finally got underway.

The team had some good talent and was paced by top players John Robison and Robert Hamilton. Hamilton was the team's major offensive weapon with a season total of 64 goals.

Both Robison and Hamilton were named to the All-Garden Grove League squad.

Behind first-year coach Paul Perez, Pacifica's wrestling team won its second straight league title and eighth overall.

With tough victories over La Quinta and Bolsa Grande, the Mariners finished their season with a 6-0 dual meet record in the Garden Grove League and a 7-1 record overall.

At the league finals at La Quinta, Pacifica's wrestlers performed better than in pastyears, taking four individual league titles.

Dave Nahay and Richard Oakley, who led the team throughout the season, won championships at 141 and 147 pounds, respectively, and Benny Lugo, in his first competition of the year, topped the 156 division. Mark Weisbender was the GGL titlist at 165. Ed Blanchette and Mark Amaral took seconds at the finals. The Mariners' JV squad took second in league with a 5-1 record, behind La Quinta.

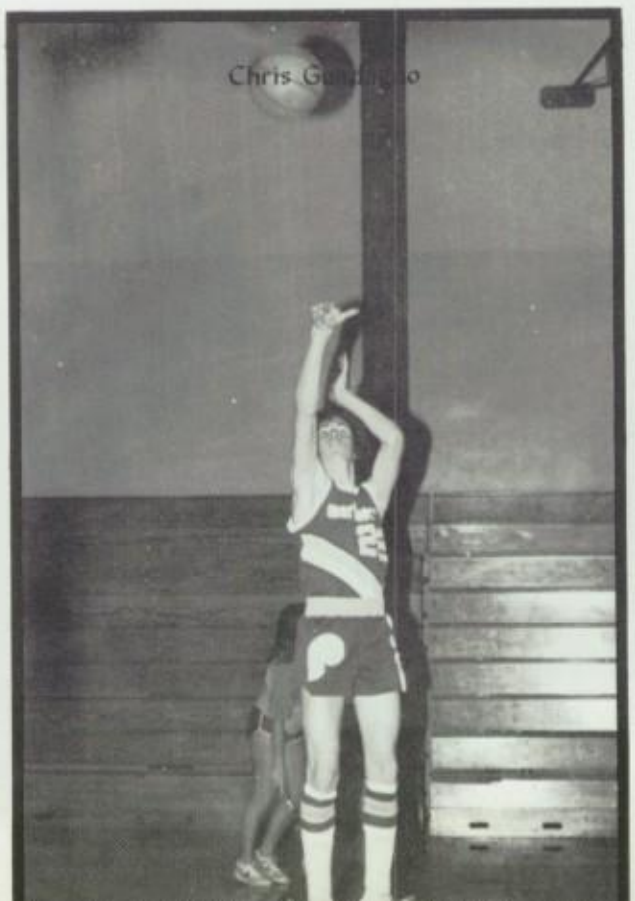
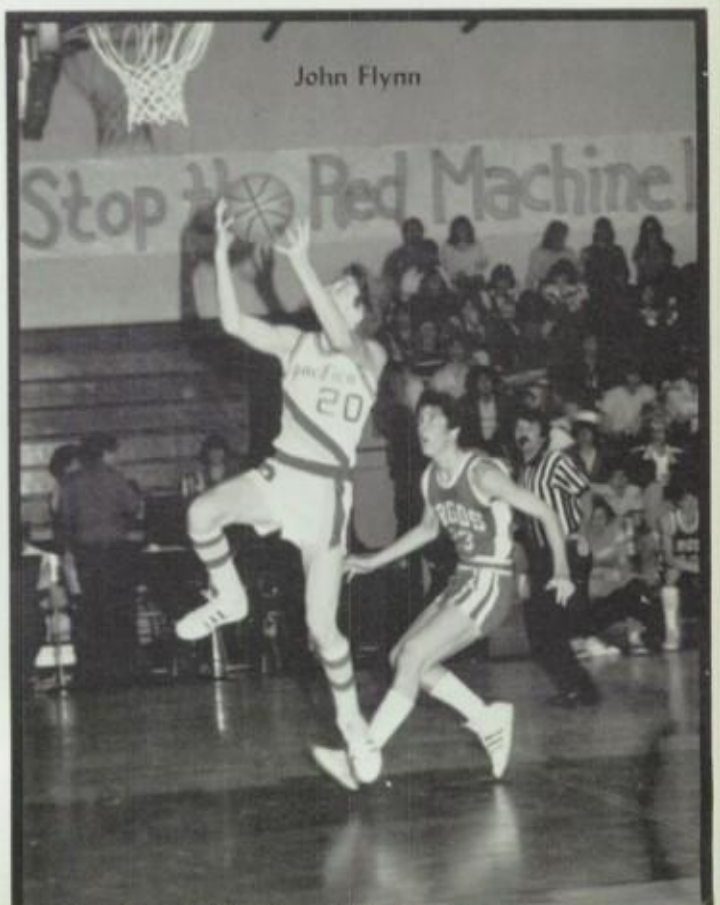
A Powerful Start And A Strong Finish Leaves The Cagers Sixth In G.G. League





After winning four of its first eight games, Pacifica's basketball team was expected to make a heavy impact on the Garden Grove League. Instead, the Mariners continued to be a second division club, finishing sixth with a 2-10 record.

The Mariners, favored by many to finish fourth, won their two opening games, 41-40 over University and 55-49 over Magnolia. But they dropped 20-point games to league powers Los Amigos and Bolsa Grande and never recovered.

All league forward Jeff Oines led Pacifica with a 17 point average, pulling down eight rebounds a game. Charlie Reed, Randy Gunderson, Dean Blackowski, Marc Harrison, Cliff Koustik, and Bill Smith also contributed heavily to the Mariners' attack.

The highlight of Pacifica's season was an 84-67 triumph over Garden Grove.

If able to avoid illness, Pacifica's swim team was expected to be among the strongest this year. A young team (only two varsity members graduate), the Mariners had a strong shot at unseeding league powers La Quinta and Garden Grove.

Seniors Robert Hamilton and John Robison, who provided leadership for the squad, were expected to advance to CIF. Sophomore Scott Velardo and Freshman Lance Godbout were also favorites in league.

Baseball Swings Into

Even before the season started, baseball coach Myron Pines knew that his team's offensive prowess would no gain anyone's attention. So he employed a strong pitching staff and a solid defense totry to retain the crow hitting won for the Mariners in 1979.

And the man many GGL coaches regard the best in their field has made it work. Pacifica has been in first plac despite having an offense which has a numbing affect on one's mind.

When the Mariners are on the diamond, some of the best high school baseball can be observed. Keith Valenzuel and Tom Saenz lead one of the strongest pitching staffs in the county, and an infield of Kent McBride, Gar Embree, Mike Samuel and Pat Ogle virtually assures that any ball not hit into the outfield will not gain a opponent any bases.

Successful Season

Catcher Billy McKinney and outfielders Joe Canatsey and Jeff Ostarode, who doubles as a pitcher, also started Pacifica, which went for its third championship in four years. Saenz and Valenzuela also spend time in the tfield.

Although the Mariners' don't knock the cover off of the ball, they do get some timely hitting, resulting in a long nning steak following two early-season losses.

But with the balance of the GGL this year, Pacifica could play outstanding ball and still lose. However, this is likely because as the team's offense matures, its winning percentage rises.

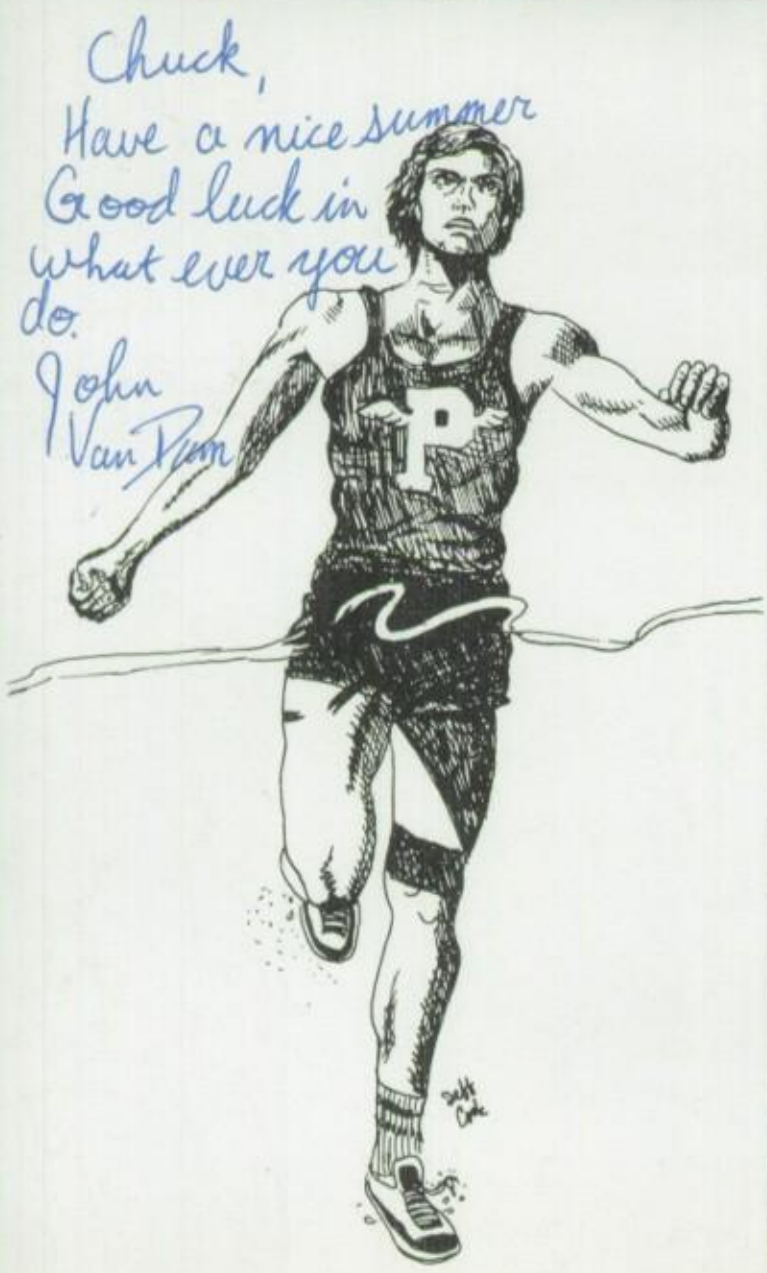
TRACK & FIELD

Balanced Spikers Continue League Domination

1980 Varsity Track Team



As far as individual talent goes, Pacifica's track team didn't match up with many of its predecessors. But in the area of overall team balance, no squad in the school's history was as good as '80's spikers.

The Mariners were strong in every area, having at least one of the league's top participants in all 16 events.

The distance crew possessed considerable depth, as Jim Madden, Greg Vizzini, Stu Farber, Tom Cook and Brian Stemm were all first rate.

In the sprints, Hans Nolff was number one in league in the 100 and 220, and Rob Reynolds was extremely strong in the 330 low hurdles and the 440.

But it was in the jumping events that Pacifica really dominated the Garden Grove League. Francis Falvo was superb in the triple, high and long jumps, Tim Anderson shined in the triple and high jumps, and Mark Atkins, who also ran a strong 110 high hurdles, ranked high as a triple jumper. Bill Mitchell was an excellent pole vaulter.

In the shot put and discus, it was hard to defeat Doug Applegate and Joel Brodowski's performances.

The team's overall balance helped it in the dual meets, where the Mariners were expected to win the league. However, in the league finals, the absence of super-talented individuals does not guarantee Pacifica anything.

It never fails. Pacifica can always expect numerous titles and honors when it comes to athletics. Achievements which might make a lesser program salivate insatiably are commonplace to Mariners.

The 1979-80 school year was no different. Pacifica's soccer team earned the school's first CIF crown and took its fourth straight league title. The football team won the GGL championship (surprise!) for the eighth straight year, and the wrestling squad enjoyed its second consecutive year at the top.

But spring has always been the most athletic season at Pacifica. The baseball and track teams are favorites to win titles, and the tennis and golf squads, like that of cross country, should advance to CIF.

Individual Mariners also fared well. Russ Burdeno was voted 2-A soccer player of the year and Richard Oakley became the first Pacifica wrestler to reach the state tournament in five years.

Girls Tie for 2nd in League

This years Girls' Tennis Team proved to be one of the strongest teams in a long time. The Mariner record was 9-3, losing only to La Quinta, and once to Los Amigos whom they tied with in League.

With the aide of Coach Brand, the girls practiced hard to accomplish this deed. The Varsity team was made up of all returning players. Singles players were Jennifer Taylor, Jenfei Lee, and Gail Louie. Playing doubles were Cheryl Robinson and Fawn McCracken, Rene Servis and Linda Batesole, and Audrey and Sabrina Wu.

Although most of the Varsity players will be graduating, there are several strong J.V. players to fill their places. Hopefully, next years team will equal or surpass this years record.

The four seniors Mary Murphy, Karla Deliquanti, Lynn Horvath, and Donna White will be hard to replace but the returning players show much potential for a successful team next year.

Strong Performances Qualify Girls For CIF

In the newly formed girls' league for cross country the PHS team placed third in league finals and 2nd overall. Pacifica's girls' basketball team was fairly successful in 1980, but it didn't meet its expectations. Junior center Debbie Lee led the squad with 16 points per game, and the squad's two seniors, Irene Thomas and Mary Murphy, started at the forward positions. Guards Debbie Harmon and Tracy Brown will along with Lee, comprise the returning starters. The team was mostly made up of juniors and sophomores, so with a year's experience under their belt, next year's Mariners could be CIF material.

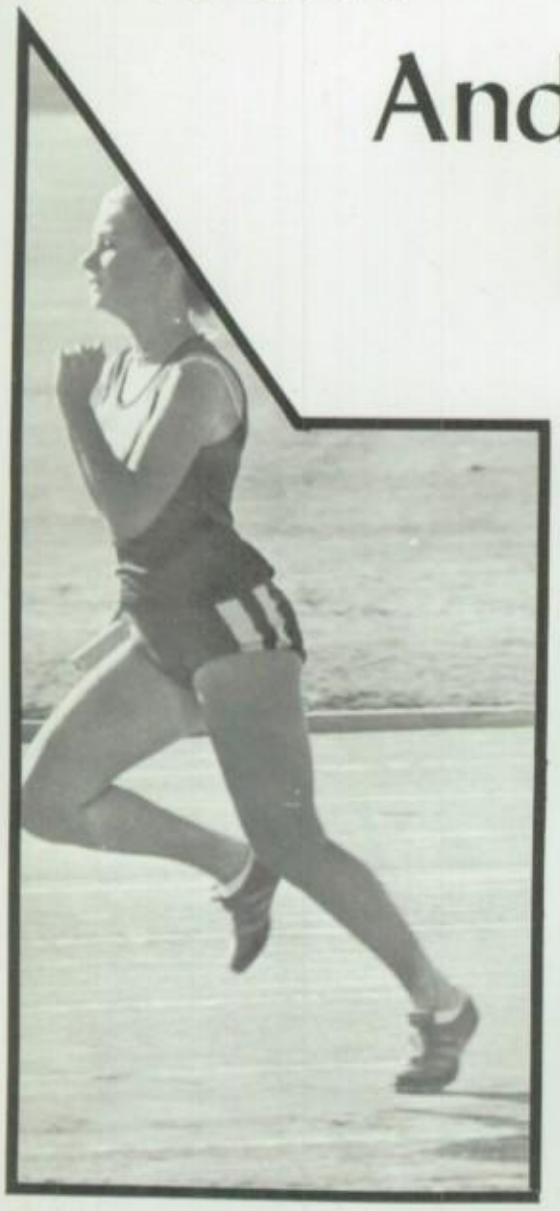
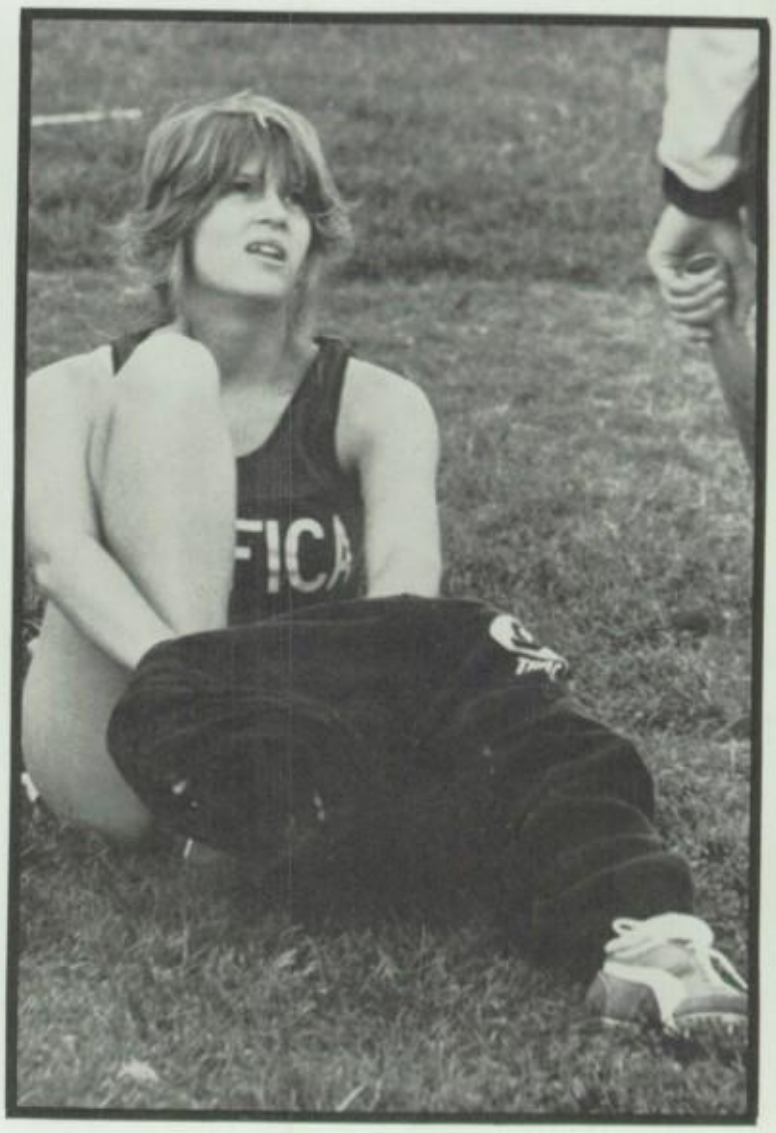
Track And Field





The Pacifica 1980 track team is off to a successful start by winning their first two meets. Outstanding members who are returning this season are Bridget Brill, in the 880, Julie Curry in the hurdles, Renee Reynolds in the mile, Dana Kriesel in the 440, Katie Critchfield in the 100, and Stephanie Butler in the 440 relay. The girls are looking forward to their 2nd League title in a row.

It was difficult to find a weakness in the softball team's lineup when it took the field in 1980, as the Mariners were strong everywhere.

Pacifica's greatest strength was depth. "We don't fall off (in talent) on the substitutes," said Coach Duffy Walker, "They're even top to bottom."

Led by Kayla Owen, who pitched an early season no-hitter, and juniors Tracey Brown and Dee Dee Cole, The Mariners were hopeful of one of its strongest performances in years.

BADMINTON

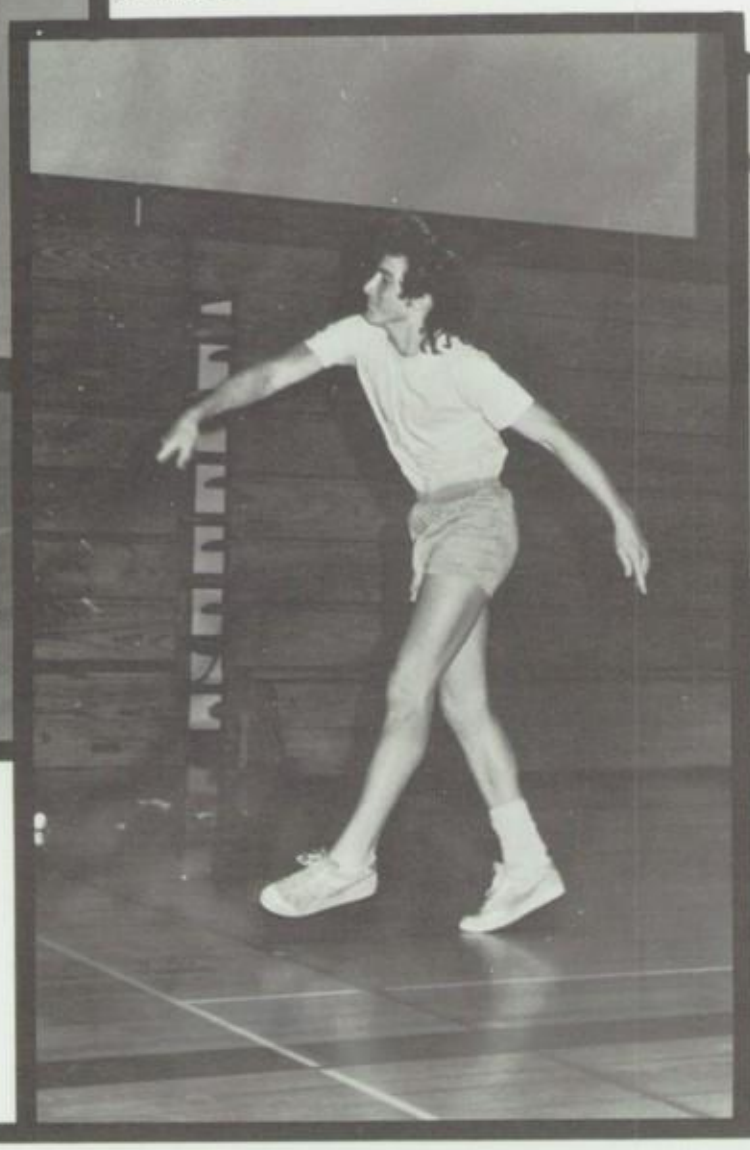
This year, Pacifica's first official badminton team made its debut in the Garden Grove League. Though the team lacked experience, Coach Judi Kelly feels that many of the players show a great deal of promise for next year.

Top boys' singles player Jeff McMahon, the only male with any previous badminton experience, should make a strong impression on the league next year. Dane Halovich and Sean Cocoran will attempt to reach McMahon's level of play by the next season.

Patricia Alcock and Helen Lavigne gave this year's team some much needed strength and experience. Patricia will be returning next year.

The team of Kathy Brown and Angela Zanaboni topped the girls' doubles squad early in the season, although they are sure to eventually receive some competition from the teams of Patsy Lakin/Cindy Spear and Susan Allen/Lisa Garris.

Gary Bickal and Gregg Cooper were the lone represenatives of Pacifica's boys' doubles.



t row, L to R: Angela Zanaboni, Kathy Brown, Caroline, Debbie Raider, Gigi Rabe. 2nd Row: Lisa Garris, Jennifer Taylor, indy Spear, Janet, Sharon Lucky, Kerri Miles. 3rd Row: Gary Bickal, Patsy Lakin, Dane Halovich, Susan Allen, Trisha lcock, Helen Lavigne, Jeff McMahon, Sean Corcoran, Coach Cindy Millonzi. Chuckie, It's been so fun this year!
Geometry was rough so, well & left... But you stuck with it alright! Best of luck in future years and keep up that warm friendly Smile! Love always,

The stars that line your streets glow at night
One can't see the real ones for all the light

People walk your paths in search of a dream
But you're not as kind as you may seem

With their possessions on their backs
The ciphers travel your beaten tracks

You're beautiful but you're cruel
You make us all look like fools friends? no only foesunspoken secrets being analyzed by only one mind - daytime rendevous that pass like ships in the night-only a mirror gives an image of someone I know-after all, whom could I ever love?

perhaps Narcissus was right-a reflection tells a lot, and only a reflection has the nerve to return my gaze.

Come to me my little one,
Don't ever be afraid.
I'll hold your hand forever, and won't ever let go, no never!

Come to me my little one,
Don't ever be afraid.
My love for you is never ending and will grow as you get old!

Come to me my little one
Don't ever be afraid,
We'll walk together side by side holding hands all the way!

Come to me my little one,
Don't ever be afraid,
I'll wipe away your lonely tear,
for in you I've just begun!

Come to me my little one,
Don't ever be afraid.
For on the day of my return
You will come along!

but you wanted nothing of mine.

Where are all the happy times
Where is it they can be
I looked under my pillow
But all I found were tears

I lay awake at night sometimes Wondering what is going through your mind
I pray that you are safe
I really truly love you and I always will Despite the pain you caused me-
Perhaps I am a fool-
At least I know I'm not alone.

You came into my life when I was all alone, you showed me love and good times that I had never known.

You've changed me in so many ways,
You've opened up my eyes,
I've now begun to live the truth and leave behind the lies.

Life has been so easy, since you've come around,
You've made me feel completely whole, the love I've finally found.

From long ago an emptiness was growing deep inside,
the shadow of my lonliness was always at my side.

But then you came and brought me peace, and led me to the sun,
My days are filled with light and hope;
my life has just now begun.

You feel...

...The cool morning dew from the grass upon your feet, the path curving through the trees.
...the wind caressing your face and hear it playing the music the leaves dance to.
...the cool velvety petals of the wild flowers you touch.
...the cold clearness of the water from the steam on your hands.
... the quiet that enfolds you and soothes your hurt.
... the beauty and solitude of the forest on a morning walk.

Justice

The days following the revolution were an explosive blur. There were numerous criminals that had to be convicted. There were numerous demonstrations of power that had to be marched. And somehwere in that blur, there was the trial of Mohammed Alaja. Mohammed had spent two weeks in "prison" before he finally got his trial. Prison was actually the cellar of a butcher's shop. The butcher was now one of Mohammed's three jurors. "What is this man accused of?" inquired the youngest juror, a UCLA alumni with a bachelor's degree in humanities. "Supporting the shah with propaganda and criticizing the revolutionary movement." replied one of the jurors, a former refinery foreman. The butcher turned to Mohammed. "State your case." Mohammed hesitated a moment; he was confused as starved people usually are."I said, 'State Your Case!'" Mohammed began to speak; his voice was inaudible. "Speak up, you ass!" the foreman thundered. "I'm, I'm not guilty." Mohammed began, "I only did what I had to do to survive." "Explain. . ." "That was my job - to push the government. I wrote for the Tehran press; the Shah controlled the newspaper. I had to write what he wanted me to." "Don't you have a mind of your own?" "Yes, and it told me that if I wanted to live comfortably, I'd better do what I was told." "Don't you believe in the revolution?" The butcher turned red with anger and pride. Mohammed thought a moment. He looked at the guards. "I don't know." Mohammed muttered. "What!" a voice roared. "I don't know. It's been so long since anybody wanted my opinion; I don't know what to say! I wasn't prepared for this." He looked at his hands. "I'm not sure that a religous government can be any better than a dictatorship. I'm not even sure you really had a revolution." The butcher turned a different hue of red. "Then you do not believe in Islam?" the butcher bellowed. "Wait, wait, I didn't say that! I'm just afraid that a religous government might end up being oppressive!" Mohammed nearly cried. He realized that he has almost given his real opinion. He knew that action was a fatal mistake in any dictatorship, religous or not. The UCLA alumni stared at Mohammed, "Do you have anything else to say?" "YES, please, let me live. I could help you. I can write propaganda for anybody." The three jurors turned towards each other to discuss the case. Their decision was unanimous. It was the same one they had made for the last twenty cases. "Death." said the butcher. Animal instinct told Mohammed to run. But he hesitated. Before he could think again, two guards grabbed his arms. Mohammed nearly fainted. The guards dragged Mohammed into a small patio that had once been a part of a private restaurant for army officers. Mohammed was forced to stand in front of a rain gutter. One man tied his hands to the pipe while another ripped open Mohammed's shirt to expose the pale target that lay within. Mohammed's four executioners stepped forward. He doubted that any of them had an unloaded gun. He looked at the guard who seemed to be the captain of the execution squad. "May I say something before you shoot me?" "NO!" blared the guard. Mohammed opened his mouth to speak, despite the guards reply, but before he could even say a word, the order to fire was given. One word got caught in his mouth just as the bullets entered his chest. The word was "listen." One of Mohammed's executioners, a twenty year old boy who had spent two years at UCI, stalked forward. He spat on Mohammed's body. "Justice has been served." he muttered. The executioners readied for the next case.

The 1980 REEF is an attempt to express the joy of life (not cooking) as it occurs at Pacifica. We tried to leave the apathy thing out although it is true that had Gomer Pyle, USMC, been killed in action in Vietnam and the CIA risen to become CONTROL'S greatest enemy, the whole scene would have just passed right over our heads. The REEF staff cared, at least. It was a hard fight for us when we decided to care, for we were constantly worried about what our friends might think. Unfortunately, the staff began to care too much. When half the class began attending Pro-Nuclear rallies while the other half became part of the No Nuke movement, we had quite a few bombing incidents across the classroom, with the only casualties of our little wars being the deadlines we missed with amazing consistency. Whenever we got bored, we just sat around and watched production days accumulate (we are now listed in the Guinness Book for the number of production days lost). We even had our little problems with the higher-ups in the world. They called us apathetic, but we didn't care. Then we asked them for a little help, and they said they didn't care. But, in the beginning of the year, we decided to make this yearbook the best damn book possible, and we decided to care enough and to go for it. Good ole Julie finally made it through after seventeen nervous breakdowns, a recurring ulcer, and a fractured leg. The rest of the staff wound up in a sanitarium, but, that's life. Anyway, we did it (although we may never do it again).

Julie Curry

I sit beside the fire and think of all that I have seen,
of meadow-flowers and butterflies in summers that have been;

Of yellow leaves and gossamer in autumns that there were,
with morning mist and silver sun and wind upon my hair.

I sit beside the fire and think of how the world will be when winter comes without a spring that I shall ever see.

For still there are so many things that I have never seen:
in every wood in every spring
there is a different green.

I sit beside the fire and think
of people long ago,
and people who will see a world that I shall never know.

But all the while I sit and think of times there were before,
I listen for returning feet and voices at the door.

J.R.R. Tolkien

Hey Chuck,

You're okay guy
I'm glad I knew you and I hope I keep running into you

God Bless
Greg Vizzini

Jesus is Lord!

Dear Charles (I like it better than Chuck),
You are a warm-hearted person and I hope you do well in college. I wish you the very best in whatever you do.
Sincerely Anne Reed

Chuck,
It's been nice knowing you this year. Good luck in the future and what ever you do. Have fun in the summer. Keep in touch
Love ya

Chuck Dear
Have a wonderful Christmas and a great New Year
Love Jesus

Chuck,
No matter what people in shorthand & Senior Math say about you, you're still a neat guy. You'll straighten up some day. Take care and I hope you make it big in life. Remember all of those helpful hints on buying a car and house and insurance that you didn't learn. Maybe I'll see you around sometime.

Good Luck.

Sheri Phillips

Chuck,
Good luck in the future. Have a great summer. Keep on playing golf.

Tom Cook

Chuck,
Good luck in the future. Keep up the good golfing. You could make big bucks at that. Have a great summer.

Todd Thompson

Chuckie,
What's going on. Were finally out. No more school. 80 more days

Greg

Chuck,
It was a slap in math, Have fun this summer 'cause there's no more school for us see you around

Mike

Chuck.
You're a sweet friend & a nice person to have in my Shorthand class
Have a great time now that your graduating

Love Ya
Staci

Chuckie,
I hope your future turns out. We'll have to get together sometime that's all. Have a great summer & I'll see you next year

Love Ya
